Pattern

The stitch I used is called the Open Filet Net Stitch. It's basically the granite stitch, but with double crochet instead of sc. It consist of dc's and chains; double crocheting into the ch 1 space from the previous row.

Ch 141 [151]

Row 1: dc in 5th ch from the hook (counts as dc + ch 1), ch 1, skip one stitch, dc in next repeat from * to * across (69 dc, 68 ch 1 spaces) [74 dc, 73 ch 1 spaces]

Row 2: ch 4 (counts as dc + ch 1), turn, ch 1, dc in next ch 1 space repeat from * to * across, dc in ch 4 from previous round (69 dc, 68 ch 1 spaces) [74 dc, 73 ch 1 spaces]

Repeat row 2 to row 62 (rectangle should measure 38 inches long)

[repeat row 2 to row 67]

Fold the rectangle in half (bringing the top down so the rows are horizontal). Starting about halfway down from the fold, sew down both sides using a slip stitch, making sure to line up the rows evenly. The unsewn spaces at the top are the armholes. Fasten off, weave in the ends

Sew down each side, leaving space at the top for armholes

After it's sewn, pull the top and bottom so the arm seams are running horizontal through the middle. This is how you wear the piece, you can see that it's looking more sweater-like! :)

arm holes

Join yarn to one of the armholes.

Row 1: ch 1, sc around the armhole, join to top of first sc with a sl st

Row 2: ch 4 (counts as dc + ch 1), skip one stitch, dc in next, ch 1, skip one stitch, dc in next repeat from * to * around, join to the 3rd chain in first ch 4 with sl st

NOTE: The next 5 rows will continually decrease

Row 3 - 7: ch 4 (counts as dc + ch 1), dc in next ch 1 space, ch 1, dc in next ch 1 space repeat from * to * around, skip the last ch space, join to the 3rd chain in first ch 4 with sl st

Change to gray yarn

Row 8 - 10: ch 1, sc in same stitch and in each dc and ch around, join to top of first sc with a sl st

Fasten off, weave in all the ends.

Repeat on other armhole.

Join gray yarn to outside border,

Row 1: ch 1, sc evenly around, join to the top of first sc with a sl st

Row 2: ch 2, hdc in each stitch around, join to top of first hdc with sl st

Fasten off, weave in the ends.
