This Spider Web Cardigan Crochet Pattern is just what you need for October! And what I love about it is that you can wear it year round. It's Halloween-ish, but not so obvious that you can't pull it off anytime. For the cardigan I used the Spider Web Stitch. It looks complicated, but once you get the repeat down it's a quick and pretty easy pattern.

FRONT (make 2)

Ch 38 (50) [50] {62}

Repeat back pattern for front.

SEWING

Lay the two front pieces evenly on top of the back. Use stitch markers to keep the pieces in place. Use the long ends and the yarn needle to whip stitch the shoulders closed.

Try the cardigan on at this point. Mark where you want the sleeves to begin.

I wanted deep sleeves so I marked about the center

Use the long end and the yarn needle to whip stitch the sides closed.

Fasten off, weave in all ends.

Turn right side out.

Wet block the cardigan for best results.
